This letter is to inform you that I am totally outraged by the commission to even have on the agenda a request for a rate increase of 9.5% by S.C.E.&G.

When will these greedy CEO's even consider the plight of a retired postal worker who can't even receive her husband's social security due to the fact I receive a federal pension.

Whoever it was that proposed this increase should be ashamed. If the commission approves this, they too should be ashamed.

And if the commission does approve this increase, they should be required to tell the public how much stock they own in this utility. If S.C.E&G had any competition, none would choose to use this utility for our electrical needs.

I dont know about the commission members, but I cannot afford $418.39 for January and $337.85 for February. I am praying to God there won't be snow Tuesday, March 2, 2010 as the weather people seem to think we will have. Let's get some other utility to serve our needs.

Thanks to that, Sincerely, stupid Reagan I can't collect my husband's Peggy S. Morris social security. He racked my money to hide his transitra.
