Dear Public Service Commission;

I feel as if I am being pushed into a corner with no place to turn. I spent my first winter - 2009 without central heat. I changed my hot water heater from gas to electric; then I had the gas Meter removed from my home the spring 2009. This past winter - 2009 I used electric heaters in every room, turning them off or on as I enter or exit the room. All this effort was done because gas prices steadly increased, and I needed to keep cost down or at least stable. I Managed quite well according to the graphs on my statements.

When I got the notice that SCE+G is asking for a price increase on the electrical usage, I felt as if I had been slapped in the face. Where do I go from here?
