Mr. Butler:

In order to give you and the parties a heads up, I wanted to let you know that AARP is planning to file written testimony in favor of the proposed settlement. The testimony will be by Emma Myers, AARP South Carolina State President, and we hope to have that testimony filed tomorrow, 7/8.

Ms. Myers will be present to answer questions at the hearing on 7/12.

Also, AARP's expert witness in this case, Scott Rubin, will be standing by to appear virtually on 7/13 to support his rate case testimony, if anyone has questions for him.

I plan to participate virtually in next week's hearings. AARP's local counsel, Adam Protheroe, plans to be there at the hearings in person.

Thanks,
-John Coffman

DESC will have three settlement witnesses to present to the Commission on July 12, 2021. More specifically, DESC will present Rodney Blevins, Keller Kissam and Allen Rooks who will each testify in support of the comprehensive settlement agreement. Mr. Blevins, Mr. Kissam, and Mr. Rooks will appear in-person before the Commission, and the Company will present them as a panel of witnesses. We will bring name placards for each witness.

For the three remaining non-settlement witnesses for DESC, the Company will present James Neely and Allen Rooks as a panel of witnesses, and they will also appear in-person before the Commission. Alison Nawrocki will appear virtually for the Company. We will call Ms. Nawrocki to the stand first followed by the panel of Mr. Neely and Mr. Rooks. We have completed the Commission Staff survey regarding Ms. Nawrocki's virtual appearance.

For planning purposes, DESC will have its non-settlement witnesses ready to take the stand at 9:00 a.m. on July 13, but in the event that all the settlement witnesses complete their testimony before the Commission would otherwise plan to adjourn for the day on July 12, and the Commission wishes to continue with the proceeding in the interest of time, the Company will be prepared to present its non-settlement witnesses as early as July 12, 2021.

Lastly, Michael Anzelmo and I will be the only Company lawyers who will appear in-person before the Commission.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Chad
