Dear Parties:

Attached is a copy of the proposed Virtual Media Plan for this matter. It will be used for the upcoming Oral Argument on Thursday, December 10, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Please check to make sure that we have your correct email address and the correct telephone number that you will be using that day for the hearing.

Randy Erskine of the Commission will be sending you a link so that you will be able to appear virtually. If you do not have the link by Wednesday afternoon, please let me know immediately.

I believe that each party has had at least one of their attorneys appear virtually before the Commission since March 2020 and will likely not need a virtual run-through at this time. However, if you need a virtually run-through with Randy Erskine, please advise as soon as possible.

Also, I have been asked by the Court Reporter to find out if any party is planning to order or request a transcript. I need to know this information as soon as possible as well for planning purposes for our court reporter. If you intend to order a transcript, it is appreciate if you will let me know. Thank you.

The Commission has not set time limits for the arguments; however, if you expect any unforeseen issues that would require any extended argument time, please advise.

Thank you. I look forward to hearing from you regarding confirmation of the email address and telephone number that you will using on the date/time of hearing; status of a transcript; and any issues. This information or confirmation needs to be provided no later than 4:45 p.m. on Tuesday, December 8, 2020.

With kind regards, I am

Jo Anne Wessinger Hill
