Exhibit 9

Joint Applicants' Objections To ORS and Intervenors Exhibits

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 1 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	M. Anthony James, P.E.	Direct	2017-305-E	MAJ-1	Letter from Governor McMaster re: production of documents by Santee Cooper	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value of the evidence is outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403). Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating.
ORS	M. Anthony James, P.E.	Direct	2017-305-E	MAJ-2	SCE&G Exhibits 8-10, 12-13, 31 to Response to ORS Motion to Compel Exhibit 8 - Notes re: Bechtel's Relationship with Santee Cooper Bd Member Exhibit 9 - Draft Bechtel Presentation (October 22, 2015) Exhibit 10 - Notes on Bechtel Personnel, Watts Bar Exhibit 12 - Email from Jeff Archie re: litigation between Southern Nuclear and Consortium was a potential means of gaining Consortium's cooperation. Exhibit 13 - Email from Steve Pelcher re: hiring Bechtel Exhibit 31 - Mr. Wenick's Notes re: Bechtel Analysis	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403). Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 2 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Direct	2017-305-E	A.1	Email from Kevin Marsh to Lonnie Carter re: delay cost financial information	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE. - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Direct	2017-305-E	A.2	Email from Craig Albert to Lonnie Carter re: Draft Bechtel Report	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 3 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Direct	2017-305-E	A.3	Email from Michael Crosby to Craig Albert re: Draft Bechtel Report	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Direct	2017-305-E	A.4	November 9, 2015 Draft Bechtel Report	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 4 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Direct	2017-305-E	A.5	Feburary 5, 2016 Bechtel Report	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Direct	2017-305-E	A.6	Bechtel Report Action Plan	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 5 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Direct	2017-305-E	A.7	February 10, 2015 Bechtel Assessment Proposal	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00000729-30: Email from Michael Crosby to Steve Byrne re: Construction Milestone Payment Schedule and $100M Payments	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating.) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 6 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00000787-89 - Non-Disclosure Agreement between Santee Cooper and McGriff	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00000882-902 - Email from Mike Baxley to Hazel Modica re: SCE&G/Santee Cooper Meeting with attachments (Nuclear Timeline Project Management; Project Bankruptcy Counsel; EPC Securitization Assessment)	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 7 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00000905-07 - April 13, 2016 President's Meeting Agenda	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00001380-82 - Email from Lonnie Carter to Kevin Marsh re: construction management	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 8 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00001412 - August 14, 2014 Letter re: Project Schedule	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00001518-41 - March 18, 2016 Memo re: Information for joint meeting with SCANA	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 9 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00001577-79 - September 27, 2012 Memo re: Status of Structural Modules	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00001623-26 - January 11, 2013 Email from Lonne Carter to Michael Crosby re: Module and Strategy Meeting	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 10 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00001760 - February 5, 2014 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter re: Modules	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00001824-26 - March 5, 2014 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter re: Steve Burne Call, Consortium	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 11 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00002007-08 - September 3, 2014 Email from Lonnie Carter to Michael Crosby re: Kevin Marsh Email on delay costs	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00002009-11 - September 8, 2014 Email from Lonnie Carter to Mike Baxley re: Email to Kevin Marsh, management of project	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 12 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00002050-54 - October 13, 2014 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter re: Rebaseline Schedule	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00002107-09 - November 4, 2014 Email from Steve Byrne to Michael Crosby re: Third-party analysis of project	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 13 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00002523 - 25 - September 19, 2015 email from Michael Crosby to Steve Byrne re: Project Schedule, Bechtel Assessment, other matters	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00002643-44 - October 29, 2015 letter from Lonnie Carter to Kevin Marsh re: Bechtel assessment	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 14 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00003261 - December 7, 2016 Action Items from SCANA / SC Executive Call	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00003672-75 - June 14, 2016 Email from Michael Crosby to Steve Byrne re: Fixed Price Option	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 15 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00003676-80 - June 14, 2018 Email from Steve Byrne to Michael Crosby re: Fixed Price Option	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00003730-40 - June 16, 2016 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter re: Milestone Payment Schedule	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 16 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00003749-52 - July 13, 2016 Email from Lonnie Carter to Kevin Marsh re: Payment to Westinghouse	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00003976 - March 28, 2016 Email from Kevin Marsh to Danny re: Payments to Westinghouse	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 17 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00004006-32 - April 15, 2016 Email from Michael Crosby to Jeff Archie re: Bechtel recommendations	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00004180-86 - September 28, 2016 Email from Steve Pelcher to Al bynum re: Toshiba Bankruptcy	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 18 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00004798-818 - November 28, 2016 Email from Lonnie Carter to Kevin Marsh re: Nuclear timelines, project management	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005559-61 - August 19, 2015 Notes on Bechtel Call	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 19 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005596-603 - October 13, 2015 Notes on Bechtel Call	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005727-28 - December 9, 2014 Email from Lonnie Carter to Mike Adams re: Bechtel help with plant	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 20 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005729-32 - January 28, 2015 Notes on Bechtel	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005773-76 - February 6, 2015 Email from Michael Crosby to Craig Albert re: Draft proposal from Bechtel	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 21 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005839-40 - May 11, 2015 Email from Michael Crosby to Steve Byrne re: Bechtel engineer role	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005853-60 - June 1, 2015 Email from Martyn Daw to Steve Pelcher re: Implementation of Becthel assessment	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 22 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005868-69 - July 13, 2015 Email from Craig Albert to Lonnie Carter re: Bechtel Meeting	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005870-73 - July 9, 2015 Summary of Bechtel's Assessment	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 23 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005938-41 - August 25, 2015 Email from Craig Albert to Michael Crosby re: Bechtel	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005967-68- September 4, 2015 Email from Craig Albert to Michael Crosby re: Bechtel Assessment	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 24 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00005973-74 - September 9, 2015 Email from Lonnie Carter to Michael Crosby re: Bechtel review	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00006056-63 - Memo re: Bechtel's initial findings	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 25 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00006114-17 - October 14, 2015 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter re: Bechtel Assessment	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00006118-27 - November 2, 2015 Email from Michael Crosby to Craig Albert re: Bechtel Intervention	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 26 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00006130-31 - February 4, 2016 Notes re: Telephone conversation with Ty Troutman	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00006134-37 - Notes re: Accountability, schedule, and cost	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 27 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00006138-287 - November 9, 2015 Draft Bechtel report	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00006973-78 - June 30, 2016 Notes re: Q2 President's Meeting	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 28 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00008486 - Becthel Report Action Plan	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00008681-709 - February 10, 2015 Bechtel Assessment Proposal	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 29 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00008774-78 - October 1, 2015 Draft Letter from Kevin Marsh to Westinghouse	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00008782-83 - September 21, 2015 Email from Lonnie Carter to Al Bynum re: Counter Offer to Consortium	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 30 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00008822-31 - June 9, 2015 Email from Lonnie Carter to Amy Hartley re: CEO Meeting Talking points	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00008844-45 - August 23, 2013 Letter from Lonnie Carter to Kevin Marsh re: submodules	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 31 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00008908-10 - March 21, 2014 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter re: Pegasus letters	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00010055-56 - February 13, 2017 Memo from Lonnie Carter re: Santee Cooper Board Meeting	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 32 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00011042 - June 26, 2017 Letter from Lonnie Carter to Central Electric re: Extension of Interim Assessment Agreement	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00011063-65 - May 3, 2017 Email from Lonnie Carter to Rob Hochstetler re: Central's position on nuclear analysis	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 33 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00011588-630 - June 17, 2016 Agenda re: Santee Cooper Planning Committee	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00011631-56 - June 18, 2015 Memo re: Joint Meeting with SCANA	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 34 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00011823-49 - April 11, 2017 Email from Lonnie Carter to Alfred Reid re: Toshiba Announcement, Unaudited Financial Results	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015351-53 - February 9, 2017 Email from Mollie Gore to Lonnie Carter re: WEC Overtime	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 35 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015354 - Memo re: WEC Overtime	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015373-74 - May 22, 2017 Email from Lonnie Carter to Marc Tye re: Open Items	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 36 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015375-77 - May 19, 2017 Chart re: Intercompany Cooperation	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015378-79 - June 13, 2017 Email from Kevin Marsh to Mamoru Hatazawa re: Proposed Settlement with SCANA and Santee Cooper	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 37 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015380 81- June 12, 2017 Email from Kevin Marsh to Lonnie Carter re: Hatazawa Email	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015465 - May 19, 2016 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter re: Oversight Board	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 38 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015466-79 - Requirements of Oversight Review Board	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015529 - July 7, 2017 Email from Kyle Young to Rahul Dembla re: ETC Presentation	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 39 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00015530-39 - July 7, 2017 ETC Presentation	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00026531-37 - Memo re: WEC design problems	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 40 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00026569-72 - May 12, 2015 CEO Meeting Talking Points	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00028612-21 - May 14, 2015 CEO Meeting Talking Points	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 41 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00035797-808 - Narrative: SCANA's Project Management Team	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00040159-61 - Jully 7, 2017 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter re: Fluor's Opinion Letter	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 42 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00040162 - Fluor Letter	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00040580-81 - August 5, 2014 Letter from Skip Smith to WEC re: Value of Warehouse Contents	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 43 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00041699 - Blank Document - "Document Produced in Native Format"	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00044009-12 - August 25, 2014 Notes from Santee Cooper Board Meeting	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 44 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00062683-701 - Vitale & Associates Productivity Study	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00065013-17 - October 21, 2013 Memo from Lonnie Carter re: Consortium Meeting	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 45 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00089846-48 - August 8, 2014 Notes re: Characterization of Commercial Problems	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00096308 - November 13, 2014 Email from Jane Hood to Lonnie Carter re: Estimated Cost of Delay	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 46 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00107697-700 - April 6, 2015 Email from Michael Crosby to Steve Byrne re: NND Target Cost	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00229328-30 - June 19, 2014 Letter from Ron Jones to WEC re: Substantial Completion Dates	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 47 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00273890-92 - Septebmer 2, 2017 Email from Michael Crosby to Jeff Armfield re: SCE&G Bonus	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00280661 - September 12, 2017 Email from Jason Williams to Marion Cherry re: ORS, Bechtel Report	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 48 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00316316-19 - September 30, 2015 Letter from Kevin Marsh to WEC re: Fixed Price Agreement	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00316439 - June 2, 2015 re: agreement subject to evaluating Bechtel report	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 49 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00316457-58 - Notes re: Schedule, Bechtel	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00316459 - Message from Santee Cooper CEO	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 50 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00316509-22 - Presentation re: Challenges on Project	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00316626 - January 20, 2016 Email from Steve Byrne re: Bechtel, Carlette Walker	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 51 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00323036-41 - January 24, 2016 Notes on Nuclear-Executive SEssion	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00331247-49 - Notes on December 10, 2014 Meeting with Consortium	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 52 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00332476-77 - November 14, 2014 Talking Points for Nuclear Construction Meeting	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00332478-80 - Notes on December 10, 2014 Meeting with Consortium	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 53 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	ORS_00559391-462 - December 2014 Financial Statements	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	SCPSA-House_00000495-96 - November 25, 2016 Email from Mike Baxley to Lonnie Carter re: release of Bechtel Report to Coops	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 54 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Elizabeth H. Warner	Reply	2017-370-E	A	SCPSA-House_00000507-519 - July 15, 2015 Email from George Wenick to Mike Baxley re: Implementing Bechtel's Assessment. d	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403) Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Not a Business or Public Record (Rule 803(6) and (8), SCRE, § 19-5-510) - The document cannot be shown to be a business record kept in the ordinary course of business as defined by Rule 803(6), SCRE, or § 19-5-510. The document also cannot be shown to be a public record or report as defined by Rule 803(8), SCRE.
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2	VC Summer Units 2 & 3 Nuclear Progression Timeline	Exhibit derived from other objectionable exhibits (Rule 1006, SCRE) - The exhibit is inadmissible inasmuch as the data and documents underlying the exhibit are not admissible. Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 55 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.1	SCE&G Letter NND-12-0111 dated 2/29/12	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.1.A	CBI Closes on Shaw Group, Houston Business Journal, dated 2/13/13	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.2	SCE&G Letter NND-12-0111 dated 2/29/12	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 56 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.2.A	Kevin Marsh e-mail to Directors dated 6/4/13 (CONFIDENTIAL)	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.2.B	Santee Cooper Board Meeting Presentation dated 6/24/2013	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 57 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.3	Lonnie Carter letter to Kevin Marsh dated 8/23/13	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.4	Kevin Marsh e-mail to Danny Roderick (WEC) and Phil Asherman (CBI), 9/5/13	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 58 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.5	Lonnie Carter Inter-office Memo to General Counsel, dated 10/21/13	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.6	SCANA Press Release-SCE&G Completes NI Basemate Placement for Unit 3, 11/4/13	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 59 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.7	SCANA 4th Quarter 2013 Earnings Call / Webcast Transcript, dated 2/20/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.8	SCANA 1st Quarter 2014 Earnings Call Transcript, dated 4/24/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 60 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.9	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh with attached timelines, dated 11/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.10	Kevin Marsh and Lonnie Carter Letter to Danny Roderick and Phil Asherman, dated 5/6/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.11	SCANA Press Release-SCE&G Places Containment Vessel Bottom Head for Unit 3, 5/22/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 61 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.12	SCE&G Letter NND-14-0354 dated 6/19/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.13	Westinghouse Letter VSP_VSG_002819, dated 7/16/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 62 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.14	Danny Roderick (WEC) Letter to Kevin Marsh and Lonnie Carter, dated 7/25/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.15	SCANA 2nd Quarter 2014 Earnings Call Transcript, dated 7/31/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 63 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.17	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh with attached timelines, dated 11/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.17.A	SCE&G Letter dated 9/25/14 (CONFIDENTIAL)	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 64 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.17.B	Rebaselined Schedule/ EAC Meeting # 1, meeting minutes, dated 10/13/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.18	SCANA 3rd Quarter 2014 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 10/30/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 65 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.18.A	Michael Crosby e-mail to Lonnie Carter dated 11/13/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.18.C	Rebaselined Schedule/ EAC Meeting (Round 2), meeting minutes, dated 12/10/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 66 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.19	Santee Cooper Bechtel Timeline, dated 8/24/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.20	Bechtel e-mail to Lonnie Carter with Proposeal for Bechtel Asessment, dated 2/5/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 67 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.20.A	Carlette Walker e-mail to , dated 2/11/15 (CONFIDENTIAL)	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.21	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh with attached timelines, dated 11/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 68 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.22	SCANA 4th Quarter 2014 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 2/19/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.24	Michael Crosby e-mail to S. Byrne, dated 4/6/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 69 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.25	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh with attached timelines, dated 11/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.26	SCANA 1st Quarter 2015 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 4/30/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 70 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.27	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh with attached timelines, dated 11/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.30	SCANA Press Release-SCE&G Uses Worlds Largest Crane to Lift and Set Module, 7/23/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 71 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.31	SCANA 2nd Quarter 2015 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 7/30/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.32	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh with attached timelines, dated 11/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 72 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.35	Michael Crosby e-mail to Lonnie Carter dated 10/14/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.36	Michael Crosby e-mail to Lonnie Carter dated 10/14/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 73 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.36A	Lonnie Carter Inter-office Memo to Board of Directors, dated 10/21/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.37	Preliminary Results of Bechtel Assessment Presentation, dated 10/22/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 74 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.38	SCE&G Quarterly Report to ORS, Quarter Ending September 30, 2015 , 11/6/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.39	SCANA 3rd Quarter 2015 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 10/29/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 75 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.40	Draft Bechtel Assessment Report, dated 11/9/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.41	Draft Bechtel Assessment Report, dated 11/12/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 76 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.42	Telecon with TY Troutman, dated 2/4/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.43	SCANA Press Release-Westinghouse Acquires CB&I Stone and Webster, Inc., 1/4/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 77 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.44	SCANA Press Release-Westinghouse Acquires CB&I Stone and Webster, Inc., 1/4/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.45	Telecon with TY Troutman, dated 2/4/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 78 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.46	Bechtel Assessment Report, dated 2/5/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.46.A	Bechtel Schedule Assessment Report, dated 2/5/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 79 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.47	Santee Cooper- Bechtel Report Action Plan, dated February of 2016	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.48	SCANA 4th Quarter 2015 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 2/18/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 80 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.49	Santee Cooper Recomendations, VC Summer Units 2/3, dated 3/3/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.50	SCE&G Response to SC ORS, Audit Information Request 1-32	Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 81 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.51	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh with attached timelines, dated 11/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.52	SCE&G Response to SC ORS, Audit Information Request 1-32	Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 82 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.52.A	Santee Cooper Comparason of SCE&G Recommendations to Bechtel Recomendations, dated 3/29/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.53	SCANA 1st Quarter 2016 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 4/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 83 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.54	SCANA Press Release-SCE&G Elects Fixed Price Option, 5/26/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.55.A	Steve Pelkcher (Santee Cooper) e-mail to Alvis Bynum (SCE&G) dated 6/15/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 84 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.56	Michael Crosby e-mail to Lonnie Carter, dated 6/16/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.57	Santee Cooper Nuclear Timeline- Project Bankruptcy Counsel, Fall of 2016	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 85 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.58	Santee Cooper Nuclear Timeline- Project Bankruptcy Counsel, Fall of 2016	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.58.A	Michael Crosby Inter-Office Communication to Board of Directors, dated 6/18/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 86 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.58.B	Dukes Scott e-mail (ORS) to ORS Staff documenting discussion with SCE&G, 6/22/18	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.60	SCANA 2nd Quarter 2016 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 7/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 87 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.61	SCANA Press Release-SCE&G places Reactor Vessel Unit 2, dated 8/31/16/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.62	SCANA Press Release-SCE&G places Reactor Vessel Unit 2, dated 8/31/16/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.63	Fluor Estimate to Complete Report, dated 10/21/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 88 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.64	SCANA 3rd Quarter 2016 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 10/27/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.65	Secretariat Report dated 11/3/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating.) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 89 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.66	SCANA Press Release-SC PSC Approves Settelment Agreement, dated 11/9/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.67	SCANA Press Release-SC PSC Approves Settelment Agreement, dated 11/9/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.69	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh with attached timelines, dated 11/28/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 90 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.70	Toshiba Press Release, dated 12/27/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.71	Toshiba Press Release, dated 12/27/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 91 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.72	SCANA 4th Quarter 2016 Earnings Call/Webcast Transcript, dated 2/16/17	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.73	SCANA Press Release, dated 3/29/17	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 92 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.74	Michael Crosby e-mail to Lonnie Carter dated 7/7/17	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.75	SCANA Press Release- SCE&G to Cease COnstruction, dated 7/31/17	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 93 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.76	Santee Cooper letter to SC Governor McMaster dated 9/3/17	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-2.76.A	Governor Releases Bechtel Report, World Nuclear News Article, dated 9/6/17	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 94 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-3	Kevin Marsh e-mail to Lonnie Carter , dated 9/3/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-4	Lonnie Carter e-mail to Kevin Marsh , dated 9/8/14	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 95 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-6	SCE&G Meeting with ORS. Meeting Agenda, dated 10/27/15	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-7	SCE&G Filing in Civil Action No. 3:18-cv-1795-JMC, page 30, Line 152, dated June	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating.) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 96 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-8	Santee Cooper, Nuclear - Executive Session, Meeting Minutes, dated 1/25/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-9	SCE&G and Santee Cooper 3rd Party Assessment Meeting, Meeting Notes, 1/14/16	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 97 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-10	SC Governor McMaster letter to Nanette Edwards (ORS) dated 5/22/18	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating.) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
ORS	Gary C. Jones, P.E.	Reply	2017-370-E	GCJ-11	Information Withheld	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 98 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-2	March 11, 2013 Internal Memo from Energy Strategies, Inc. to Santee Cooper re: VCS Marketing Activities	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-3	VCS Strategic Marketing Plan by Energy Strategies, Inc.	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 99 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-4	March 15, 2013 SNL Power Daily with Market Report	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-5	March 14, 2013 The Bond Buyer	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 100 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-6	March 27, 2013 The Bond Buyer	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-7	June 6, 2013 SNL Energy Finance Daily	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 101 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-8	June 11, 2013 SNL Energy Finance Daily	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-9	July 23, 2013 Post & Courier	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 102 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-10	August 2, 2013 SNL Energy Finance Daily	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-11	August 19, 2013 Document Prepared by Howard Axelrod of Energy Strategies, Inc. for Santee Cooper	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 103 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
AARP	Scott J. Rubin	Reply	2017-370-E	SJR-12	August 23, 2013 Letter from Lonnie Carter to Kevin Marsh re: submodules	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC-1	List of articles, testimony in other proceedings and reports	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC-2	Confused list of hearsay information	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 104 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC-4	List of certain risk factors	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC-5	List derived from direct testimony of Nancy Brockway in 2008	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 105 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC-6	Email from Kevin Marsh to Westinghouse and CB&I	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC-7	May 6, 2014 Letter from SCANA and Santee Cooper to Westinghouse and CB&I	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 106 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC-8	October 14, 2015 Email from Michael Crosby to Lonnie Carter	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
CCL and SACE	Gregory M. Lander	Reply	2017-370-E	GL-2	Assessment of South Carolina Natural Gas Pipeline Capacity	Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
CCL and SACE	Gregory M. Lander	Reply	2017-370-E	GL-3	Direct Testimony of Gregory M. Lander - Virginia State Corp. Comm.	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 107 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
CCL and SACE	Gregory M. Lander	Reply	2017-370-E	GL-4	Dominion Discovery Response	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
CCL and SACE	Gregory M. Lander	Reply	2017-370-E	GL-5	Economic Impacts of the ACP	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
CCL and SACE	Ronald J. Binz	Reply	2017-370-E	RB-3	Order of Maryland PSC	Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC Rebuttal-1	Staff Timeline on Severe Project Management Problems	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 108 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
						Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC Rebuttal-2	Exelon's Forward Looking Analysis of Alternatives Low Carbon Resources	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 109 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC Rebuttal-3	Henry Hub v. EIA Projected Natural Gas Prices	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC Rebuttal-4	The History of Nuclear Cost Overruns & the Declining Cost of Alternatives	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 110 of 111

Party	Witness	Testimony	Docket No.	Exhibit No.	Description	Basis for Objection
Friends of the Earth	Mark Cooper	Direct	2017-207-E	MNC Rebuttal-5	Demand Growth: IRP Projections v. Reality	Hearsay (Rule 801, 803, SCRE) -Written statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing offered into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted; no applicable exception. Lack of Personal Knowledge (Rule 602, SCRE) - No evidence or testimony has been introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of this matter. Lack of Foundation (Rule 901, SCRE) - Lack of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the matter in question is authentic, has been properly and sufficiently identified, or otherwise is what the proponent claims. Lack of Authentication (Rule 901, SCRE) - Witness has not identified the document, and is not competent to identify the document, as true and accurate, and the document is not self-authenticating. Lack of Relevance (Rule 402, SCRE) - Evidence is not relevant to the issues presented and to be determined by the Commission in this matter. Even if relevant, which is denied, probative value outweighed by unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the Commission, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence (Rule 403)
Note 1:	Should any other witness not specifically identified above mention, discuss, incorporate by reference, or attach to his/her testimony any of the proposed exhibits identified above, then SCE&G asserts the same objection to any such proposed exhibits as reflected herein.
Note 2:	In regard to Mr. Gary Jones's Exhibit GCJ-12, deposition of Stephen A. Byrne, SCE&G reserves the right to object to the introduction of the deposition transcript if Mr. Byrne testifies in person. Should SCE&G tender Mr. Byrne's testimony via his deposition, then SCE&G reserves the right to object to any and all portions of Mr. Jones's Exhibit GCJ-12 that may be irrelevant, redundant, or otherwise objectionable.
Note 3:	As a general rule, SCE&G does not object to the authenticity of emails or documents created by its representatives or to documents produced by it in discovery in these three consolidated dockets. Should an authentication objection be stated to any such documents in the above objections, please disregard as the objection is inadvertently asserted.

ACCEPTED FOR PROCESSING - 2018 October 29 8:38 AM - SCPSC - 2017-305-E - Page 111 of 111