Re: Consolidated Docket Nos. 2017-207-E, 2017-305-E, and 2017-370-E: Clarification on Hearing Officer's Directive Regarding Motion to Compel filed by Friends of the Earth and Sierra Club

Dear Ms. Boyd:

The Office of Regulatory Staff ("ORS") has reviewed the Hearing Officer Directive Order No. 2018-74-H ("Order") issued on June 25, 2018, in these dockets and respectfully submits that any protective order issued under the Order should:

1. Apply only to SCE&G, Friends of the Earth, and Sierra Club and also be limited in scope to protect only from public dissemination only those materials determined to be legitimately confidential, including a provision requiring redaction by the producing party of documents containing any information that is not confidential to allow public dissemination of the redacted document without the confidential information;

2. Not require other parties to sign or be bound because, among other reasons, ORS is protected by law from any confidentiality agreement or protective order;¹ and

3. Clarify that the protective order does not apply to ORS or any information and documents received by ORS.

ORS and SCE&G have agreed the 2009 Master Nuclear Confidentiality Agreement covers these consolidated dockets.

Sincerely,

Jenny R. Pittman
