Mr. Butler, SCEU has no objections to permitting DESC an additional 60 days to file its 2020 rate case. However, I would note that in its filing of this afternoon, the ORS has urged DESC to prefile its direct testimony with its application. For the reasons set out in the ORS letter, the parties, Commission and the public interest would be well served were DESC to do so. Moreover, the ORS recommends that DESC be limited to test year updates available as of November 30, 2020. Given that the test year for SCE&G’s last rate case was 2011, a deadline of November 30, 2020 would allow DESC a reasonable opportunity for recovery. Thank you for the opportunity to respond to DESC’s motion.

To the Parties:

The Commission is in receipt of a letter in the above-captioned Dockets dated April 1, 2020 in which Dominion Energy requests that the Commission issue an order extend the January 2021 date for new rates to take effect by sixty (60) days until March 8, 2021, which is the date of the Company’s first billing cycle of March 2021. The January 2021 date was mentioned in a prior Commission Order in these Dockets. This request is being construed as a Motion. Therefore, the other parties to these Dockets have until Monday April 13, 2020 to file responses to this Motion. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.
